Employment Relations Amendment Act 2018

The Employment Relations Amendment Act 2018 received Royal Assent on 11 December 2018. The amendments to this legislation are relatively significant, with many of the changes reversing the various amendments made to the Act by the previous National government. We have scheduled 2 briefing sessions to examine, in a practical way, the key changes.

The changes include:

- Union Access
- The good faith obligations in Collective Agreement Bargaining
- Introduction of Paid Time for Union Delegates
- New obligation to provide union information to employees
- Specific Rest and Meal Breaks
- Reintroduction of the 30 day rule for new employees where there is a Collective Agreement
- Restriction on use of trial periods.
